DISTINGUISHED PARISIAN HOUSES
DISCUSSED AT CLEVELAND MUSEUM

On Wednesday, November 1, at 8:30 p.m., The Cleveland Museum of Art has scheduled an illustrated lecture on "Belles demeures Parisiennes". The distinguished lecturer is Jean Feray of Paris, who is Inspecteur Principal des Monuments Historique for the French Government. Monsieur Feray will discuss the architecture and furnishings of the Hôtel du Duc de Nemours and the Hôtel de Beauharnais, among others.

Admission is free and the public is welcome.
